Direction (Q.25-Q.28): Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.
The night was cold and dark. There was a great storm, thunder and lightning also. Most men and animals, adequately protected, were asleep in their homes. They were warm and happy. But some monkeys were running through the forest. They had no warm home and there was cold. Worried monkeys looked everywhere for shelter. They had almost resigned themselves to be flattened out by the cold. Suddenly they saw some fireflies.
Now, fireflies have a light in their tails, as all our children know. The monkeys took the light for fire. Poor things, they did not know any better. They said, "We will go near the fire and warm ourselves. There was a flock of birds in a tree nearby. One bird had a kind heart, and it felt sorry for the monkeys. It called out, "That is not fire, my friends! Those are fireflies. They give no heat. It is futile to run after them." Then monkeys got furious and their rage knew no bounds. They did not thank the bird. One monkey said rudely. "Is it so? We do not want unsolicited advice. I will teach you to say there is no fire." He jumped up the tree and pulled the poor bird out of its nest. "Alas!' said the poor bird. "Why did I try to help a fool?"

PRACTICE VERBAL ABILITY-Q&A-KEY

1. Pick out the correct sentence from the following sentences.
(a) Hardly had the function got over, the crowd dispersed.
(b) Hardly have the function getting over, the crowd dispersed.
(c) The function was not got over after the crowd were dispersed.
(d) Hardly had got over the function, the crowd disperse.

We know the usage of 'as soon as' and 'hardly had'. Hence, we can replace 'as soon as' with 'hardly had', as they both have the same meaning.

The above-given phrases are clauses. First, let's understand about clauses:

Clauses are those sentences that have a subject and a verb to complete its meaning. They are of two types:

Independent Clauses- These clauses have a subject and a verb that express a complete thought.

Dependent Clauses- These clauses do not express a complete thought.

In the above question: We need to begin the given sentence with 'hardly had' by replacing 'as soon as'. Now, as explained above we know that both 'hardly had' and 'as soon as' have the same functions. Hence, we can conclude the following points-

1)The first phrase- We know that 'As soon as the function got over' is a dependent clause, as it does not express a complete thought.

2)The second phrase- We know that 'The crowd dispersed' is an independent clause, as it expresses a complete thought.

3)We join two phrases with the help of subordinating conjunction to form a meaningful sentence.

4)Here, we can use the subordinating conjunction 'when', because it is used to express time.

So, the correct answer is- Hardly had the function got over when the crowd dispersed.

Note: We always use a subordinating conjunction to join an independent and dependent clause.

2. Pick out the correct sentence from the following sentences.
(a) Who had replaced the player after she was injured?

14. Read the following paragraph and determine carefully the main idea. From the four choices, select the one statement that best supports the author's point:

Litigation is not always the only or best way to resolve conflicts. Mediation offers an alternative approach and it is the one that can be quite efficient and successful. Mediation can be faster, less expensive and can lead to create solutions not always possible in a court of law. Additionally, mediation focuses on mutually acceptable solutions, rather than on winning or losing.

This paragraph best supports the idea that
(a) There is too much reliance on litigation in our society.
(b) Litigation is expensive, slow and limited by its reliance on following the letter of the law.
(c) Mediation is the best way to resolve a crisis.
(d) Mediation can be an effective way to resolve conflicts.

Introduction: The paragraph discusses the advantages of mediation as an alternative approach to litigation in resolving conflicts. It highlights the efficiency, cost-effectiveness, and ability to find creative solutions through mediation. It also emphasizes the focus on mutually acceptable solutions rather than winning or losing. Explanation: The paragraph best supports the idea that mediation can be an effective way to resolve conflicts. Here's why: 1. Not always the only or best way: Litigation is not always the only or best way to resolve conflicts. This implies that there are other methods available, and mediation is one such alternative. 2. Mediation is efficient and successful: The paragraph mentions that mediation can be quite efficient and successful. This indicates that it has proven to be a valuable approach in resolving conflicts. 3. Faster and less expensive: Mediation is highlighted as a faster and less expensive method compared to litigation. This suggests that it can save time and money for the parties involved. 4. Creative solutions: The paragraph states that mediation can lead to creative solutions not always possible in a court of law. This implies that mediation allows for more flexibility and innovation in finding resolutions. 5. Focus on mutually acceptable solutions: The paragraph emphasizes that mediation focuses on mutually acceptable solutions rather than on winning or losing. This suggests that the process encourages compromise and collaboration between the parties. Conclusion: Based on the points discussed, it is evident that the paragraph supports the idea that mediation can be an effective way to resolve conflicts. It highlights the advantages of mediation, such as efficiency, cost-effectiveness, ability to find creative solutions, and focus on mutually acceptable outcomes.

16. Pick out the correct sentence in indirect narration of the following sentence:
He said, "Let us wait for the award."
(a) He proposed him to wait for the award.
(b) He proposed that they should wait for the award.
(c) He agreed to wait for the award with him.
(d) He proposed me that I should wait for the award.

The correct answer is 'He proposed that they should wait for the award'.

Key Points

- The given sentence is in Direct Speech of imperative structure. As per the given question we have to change it into Indirect Speech.
- Imperative structure of sentence: This structure of the sentence is used to convey 'Orders', 'Command', 'Request', 'Advice' in a sentence.
- The process of transformation is as follows:
  - Reporting Verb is changed into 'ordered, advised, requested, commanded, beg, forbade, suggested, proposed, assured, asked, reminded, warned, agreed, refused, promised', etc.
  - Inverted Commas are removed.
  - Example:
    - He said to me, "May I have your address please." (Direct Speech)
    - He requested to have my address. (Indirect Speech)
  - In the given question 'said to' will be changed into 'proposed'.
  - The conjunction 'that' will be added.
- Therefore, as per the points mentioned above, we find that the correct answer is Option 3.

Correct Sentence: He proposed that they should wait for the award.

17. Pick out the correct sentence in indirect narration of the following sentence:
She said to him, "Please wait here till I return"
(a) She requested her to wait there till she returned.
(b) She requested him to wait there till she returned.
(c) She requested him to wait there till she returns.
(d) She requests him to wait there till she had returned.

Indirect Speech: He requested him to wait there till s*he* returned.

Explanation: While reporting imperative sentences we use reporting verbs like ask, request, beg, order, advise, wish etc to match the mood of the sentence.

And when the reporting verb is in the past (said) and the direct speech is in the present indefinite tense (simple present tense), then the indirect (reported) speech will change into the past indefinite tense.

Present Indefinite Tense (return) > Past Indefinite Tense (returned).

18. Fill in the blank with suitable preposition.
He put _____ his departure for a week.
